

Chartered or Diploma Financial Planner – Cheltenham

Attivo Group has an exciting opportunity for a Financial Planner to join our growing team in Cheltenham.

This is a salaried role and all clients are supplied, so this is a great opportunity to become a member of our team and develop your career.

We provide our advice and service through Attivo Financial Planning, one of the very few genuinely Independent, Chartered, Occupational Pension Specialist, financial planning firms in the UK.

We aim to deliver the most professional, technically competent, independent advice and service to our clients. We want to be seen as a leader in the financial planning sector, to help change the standing of financial planning to be recognised as a genuine profession and to ensure we, and the profession, contribute positively to society and the economy.

Main responsibilities

The aim of this role is to provide first class long term tax and financial planning services to ensure clients' needs are satisfied compliantly and efficiently, and to maximise new business opportunities retaining the Group's growing client base.

You will be provided with full paraplanning and administration support from an office based team, allowing you to focus on delivering exceptional service to our clients.

Qualifications, skills and experience

You must have at least three years' experience working as a Financial Planner and will have a proven track record providing high levels of service and advice.

Ideally you will hold CII Chartered status, we will consider Financial Planners who are close to achieving this.

We pride ourselves on the training and development support we give our employees in order to attain further exams. You will be given full study support as well as a very rewarding and prosperous career.

Salary and benefits

Starting at £40,000 but increased depending on experience, qualifications and track record. We also offer a company car or allowance and a very favourable bonus structure.

Attivo Group also offers:

- excellent company benefits package including a non-contributory Pension Scheme, Private Medical Insurance, Income Protection, Critical Illness and Death in Service
- generous holiday allowance
- corporate gym membership
- free town centre parking for employees who live over 1.5 miles away from the office (Cheltenham only)
- regular company social events
- charity days
- excellent culture, promoting employee wellbeing and engagement.

Privacy Policy

If we have received your details in response to a recruitment initiative, we will store the personal information that either you, your recruitment agent or another third party has provided us with. We process that information because it is in our legitimate interests to do so in order for us to be able to make an informed decision about whether to interview you and, ultimately, recruit you.

We believe that you would reasonably expect us to process your personal information in this way and that such processing does not have an impact on you in a way that would make this processing unfair. Where your personal information is kept as part of a file relating to prospective employees of Attivo Group, we will retain that information and any information relating to that matter. This is so that we can review the file if any complaints or issues arise after the recruitment process. The length of time that we keep prospective employee files is usually 3 months after conclusion of the relevant recruitment process.

Unless you request us not to do so, we may also contact those individuals who are referred to in any information you provide us with, for example referees. This contact may be made by telephone, e-mail or post. We will only do this if we have your express permission to contact them in this way.

Where you have provided us with personal information about a referee or a previous employer, it is your responsibility to inform that person that you have provided us with their details and that we will be processing it in connection with your employment application. You should also give them our contact details (below) should they wish to discuss this with us. Click here to view our full privacy policy for prospective employees.
